

Lutesville News.

Go to C. A. Walker, Lutesville, for Baling Ties.

W. S. Langdon of Blytheville was in town Sunday.

John Phelps is limping around on a foot he cut with an ice saw.

J. W. Carmean's horse gave him a sprained ankle Friday by falling on it.

Mrs. Wal. Estes and daughters of DeSoto are visiting the family of B. W. Burford.

Ed M. and Ed F. Caldwell moved their families to their farm, near Bessville, this week.

L. A. Goodwin and little son Walter of Jackson were here between trains Monday.

Rev. Cunningham moved his family here from Bertrand Monday and will make this their home.

Dr. and Mrs. VanAmburg of Burfordville visited the family of Dr. R. W. VanAmburg Sunday.

Wm. Cook and family left for their home in Portland, Ore. last Friday, after visiting relatives here a few days.

Mr. Umbeck of Jackson was here Tuesday examining the plans for an Odd Fellows' hall, with a view of placing a bid on the work.

Miss Ethel Cox, who has been visiting relatives here for several weeks, returned to her home at Sherman, Texas, last Friday.

Mrs. M. Schmitke and children and Miss Fannie Burford, who have been spending the summer here, returned to their home in St. Louis yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Cole of Fredericktown came down Sunday and Mrs. Cole read a paper entitled "Kiwiki, the Korean," before the Home mission meeting in the evening which was much appreciated.

J. D. Phelps informed us that his father D. L. Phelps, who has been in Oklahoma several years, has been suffering severely from a cancer on his face. He is expected to be brought back here as soon as he is able to make the trip.

Captain S. A. Martin has been working in the interest of the Macabees the last month. He is well pleased with the outlook and reports two initiations, three testimonials and eight or ten applications approved for next Saturday night.

An effort is being made to get the Jackson branch train to make a special trip to Lutesville on the coast of the Home Corners' celebration at Jackson. If we succeed the train is expected to leave here at 7:30 or 8 o'clock next Saturday morning.

The Epworth league will give a musical entertainment at the Opera house next Tuesday evening. Miss Ursula Mardoch of Beethtoven conservatory, of St. Louis, the noted singer and pianist from the same place, will render a program equal to any lycem number given in this part of the state. Everyone should come out and enjoy this program.

The Ladies' Home Mission society and league rendered an excellent program at the M. E. church last Sunday evening. Mrs. Rhinehart, in giving her experience among the Siletz Indians, brought some interesting facts in regard to their life and customs which were much appreciated by the audience. Miss Ethel Dunn read an excellent paper on foreign missions, which showed much thought, as well as portraying the interest she is taking in this line of work. The music, consisting of solos, duets and choruses, was very fine.
